

Committees

We achieve broad-based support for our activities through our general assembly, our large board and the board group. The executive management committee, the permanent commissions as well as the ad hoc working groups and various expert panels ensure that the expertise available at associations and companies continuously finds its way into the positions staked out by economiesuisse. The economiesuisse network is unique in Switzerland.

Board

Board Committee

Managing director's committee

Commissions